Many Beach High grads also attended Treasure Island Elementary, and if you're one of them, you'll be happy to hear that the school will celebrate its 50th anniversary in 2005.

You've got a whole year to look forward to their reunion weekend scheduled for October 22-23, 2005.

Everyone who ever attended Treasure Island is invited, and the reunion committee welcomes suggestions, memories, questions, and comments. For more information, contact David Reskin at 305-866-2649 or via e-mail at davidreskin@hotmail.com. The committee reports that they will soon have their own website, and in the meantime they're up and running at a Yahoo! Group. That internet address is: <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/TreasureIsland50/>.

Journalist and author Nina L. Diamond ('74), also your humble Alumni News Link Editor, moved to Austin, Texas last fall, and reports that this fabulously artsy and progressive city is also home to plenty of other former South Floridians, including Susan (Shulman) Schaffel ('73) and her husband, Jordan (a North Miami Beacher). Susan publishes the Local Birds series of illustrated bird guides, which include South Florida, Texas, and California.

Dear Potential Sponsor

Yes, it's a money pitch. But I hope you'll first invest a moment to understand why it makes sense to become a participating sponsor of the Miami Beach Senior High Alumni Association's 6th Annual Hall of Fame Induction Luncheon.

You'll be in good company.

Since its inception in 1999, more than 1,500 successful Beach High alumni, area business leaders and elected officials have assembled annually to celebrate the life achievements of Beach High's most distinguished graduates, including U.S. Treasury Secretary Robert Rubin, Florida Supreme Court Chief Justice Gerald Kogan, U.S. Ambassador Steven J. Green, Academy Award winners Daniel Taradash (From Here to Eternity), Mark Medoff (Children of a Lesser God) and nominee Andy Garcia (The Godfather III), Grammy Award winning composer Desmond Child, college baseball coaching legend Stanley "Skip" Bertman, and inspired architect/sculptor Kenneth Treister.

Your company will be in good company.

Your business will share the marquee with some of South Florida's pillar companies, many of whom return annually to support this event. And your presence at the event will uplift us all.

Your support will be reinvested.

Proceeds from last year's event helped fund more than $12,000 in scholarship awards for deserving Beach High achievers. Your investment will help launch the careers of future Hall of Fame inductees and pay dividends every time you think of it.

And your support and presence at this year's Hall of Fame induction luncheon will surely be appreciated by those of us who have voluntarily committed to produce yet another memorable event.

If you would like to participate and/or can recommend other prospective sponsors, please contact me at your earliest possible convenience. I will be pleased to answer your questions and ensure that your sponsorship contribution is enthusiastically recognized.

Sincerely,

Stacey H.S. Hipsman
